NOT FROM EDITORIAL PENS

The Real Worth of Any Publication

ONE of the greatest fallacies in life is the belief that editorial opinion represents the true sentiment of a people. Analyze the situation and you will discover that editorial writings invariably are the opinions of one individual colored to suit the editor's outlook on the subject under discussion. The true voice of the people is found in letters from subscribers. Here is one:

Gentlemen:

I am enclosing a check of $4.00 to cover the subscription price for the Gazette for another year.

I have taken your magazine for the past several years and would consider not receiving it as seriously as losing a very good friend.

Very truly yours,
Sylvester J Schmitt

Encl. Check

S. J. SCHMITT'S first subscription to the GAZETTE was received August 26, 1925. Each year he has renewed. And with each renewal, there has come a letter similar in tenor to the one written by Mr. Schmitt this year. He is only one of the many satisfied readers of the GAZETTE.
